Welcome to Club P.L. You might ask what is Club P.L.? Well, it is the new resort of '85-'86. You might be familiar with it as Point Loma High school.

Let me tell you a little about this new and exciting resort. It's located in the heart of Point Loma. It is the place where on September 9, 1985 teenagers from different walks of life gathered. From this day on until June 17, 1986, these people have engaged in such activities as: getting an education, playing sports, participating in clubs, going to dances, meeting new people and having the time of their lives.

To learn more about this intriguing new Club P.L., look through this brilliant travel brochure, and grab your Passport to P.L. . . .

Judy,
It was fun having you in my

of luck and I hope you have a rad

THE PLACE TO BE.

Opening of the Season . . .

Opening of the season at Club P.L. was started off with the traditional Hawaiian pep rally and dance. The day reunited friendship and spirit, after a long summer of sun and fun. P.L. natives put on their brightly colored hawaiian attire and showed their true P.L. spirit.

The pep rally included a welcome back performance by the Varsity Cheerleaders. Students then grabbed their friends, and danced enthusiastically to the tunes of "Easy Access." But the fun didn't stop there. It carried on into the night, at a dance held in the big gym. The whole event set off the atmosphere for the exciting year to come. There is never a dull moment at Club P.L.

AT CLUB P.L.

CLUB P.L. . . .

Now that you know a little bit about Club P.L. let me tell you how to get there. Transportation was something native P.L.er's took very seriously. The most common forms of transportation were cars, mopeds, bicycles, skate boards and walking. But then there were those who had other ideas about how they wanted to get to where they were going. It doesn't matter how you get to Club P.L., just as long as you get there.!

GETTING THERE.

California Dreamin'

California Dreamin'. What does it mean to you? To many it can mean anything from the white sandy beaches to the different landmarks such as the old Point Loma lighthouse or the Hotel Del. California Dreamin' might also mean catching that perfect wave or watching the sunset over the ocean with someone special. What ever your images of California may be, you can find your dreams at Club P.L.

Judy:
 Have a nice summer and a great 11th grade year which you will because you'll be on the Drill team!
 I'm glad I met you and hope we become better

SPIRIT!

Spirit is what keeps Club P.L. going. No matter where you looked spirit and Pointer Pride was around you. Native P.L.er's showed they were true to there school by dressing up in the traditional maroon and gold colors and participating in school activities. Spirit was most apparent at sports events where the stands were filled with P.L. fans cheering the Mighty Pointers on to victory. We have a lot to be proud of a Club P.L. and our pride and spirit shows it.

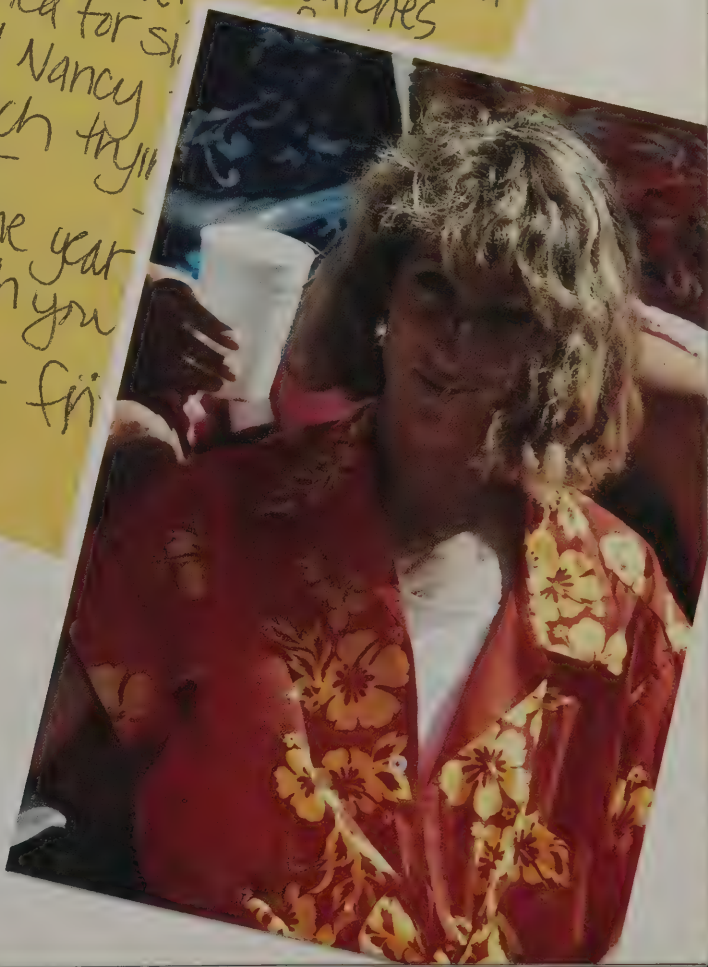

Dear Friend,
I'm back again for another and exciting year at Club P.L.! The people and teachers here are the best, everyone is so friendly! I'm sending you some pictures

Are We Having Fun Yet?

Are we having fun yet? Of course we are! P.L. natives always know how to have fun. This was especially true during spirit week, when students dressed up as everything from flower children to nerds. Lunch time was filled with dancing, games and excitement.

Spirit week wasn't the only time Pointers have fun. This kind of free-spirited attitude was carried on throughout the year at dances, club activities, sports events, parties, and every day school life. On and off campus native P.L.er's knew how to have a good time!

HOMECOMING

Homecoming is an annual, traditional celebration at Club P.L. This year was no exception. The theme was "Land of Dreams," and it was a day to remember. With Friday the 25th of October being the rap-up to a weeks worths of spirit activities, native P.L.'ers were ready for a big celebration. The day was filled with energy and excitement. There was a pep rally in the big gym where there were performances by the cheerleaders and the drill team, and Coach Edens introduced the Varsity Football Team.

The Game was especially electrifying. The stands were occupied with both native and alumni of Club P.L. The Mighty Pointer took on Patrick Henry and walked away with a 31-0 victory. During half-time there was the presentation of the floats and the Homecoming court. It was a perfect day ready to be topped off by a perfect evening.

AT CLUB P.L.

To top off a glorious day and celebrate the outstanding P.L. victory, there was a dance held in the big gym. Following the game everyone rushed home to get ready so they could look their best for an exciting evening of dining and dancing with their dates and friends. In the gym students danced to the rhythms of "Music As You Like It" and the band "Origin." It was a perfect end to a perfect day!

HOMECOMING COURT

NOT JUST AN ASB-

The 1985-86 ASB was a real success, new ideas for the school developed everyday. Due to the variety of students on the council, ideas are represented from all social groups in the school.

"The ASB this year was like a little United Nations," commented Mrs. Brown, the ASB advisor. The ASB is to help everyone in the school. The newest editions to the P.L. calendar of events was the Holiday Dance. The dance was held in the big gym, and was a semi-formal. Dances are excellent activities to raise money for the school, while raising spirit and uniting the student body. The Hawaiian dance hosted the biggest crowd ever in Point Loma's history.

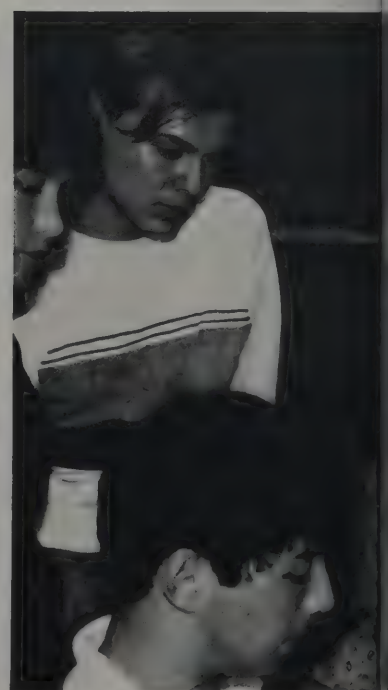

Other contributions to P.L.'s campus were more pep rallies, student and staff-of-the-month, cafeteria advisory committee, sports banners, inter-school and human relations, clean campus and booster club. The ASB also supported adopt-a-family, canned food drive and helped raise money for the rescue mission.

Many worthwhile projects have been completed because of the teamwork the ASB shares. Judy Adelezzi felt she had a new perspective of the schools problems since she got involved in ASB. Chris Jowers energetically commented "ASB's not just a job, it's a satisfying experience." The ASB's spirit and motivation for improving the school is at a peak this year, and for many more years to come.

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT!

"We've got spirit, yes we do . . ." This was the attitude of this years Varsity Cheer. The squad was made up of 13 girls: 6 seniors, 5 juniors and 2 sophomores. The team practiced all summer long and attended cheer camp at UCLA where they won 3 superior ribbons and brought home a spirit stick. Their responsibilities during the school year included cheering at varsity sports events, performing at pep rallies and a variety of spirit boosting activities.

"This year's Varsity Cheerleaders have worked very hard to boost school spirit," exclaimed cheer advisor Ms. Ojeda. "Their time and effort put into practices and performances produced a very professional and well disciplined squad." "Cheer made our senior year all the more fun." Reflected Cheer Captains Lara McGinty, Lori Jamison and Tori Purdum. "The squad really did a lot to raise the school moral. It was a lot of hard work, but it was worth it!"

SPORTS

There was a lot of competition for Point Loma's Varsity Football team this year. The team's outstanding record helped them have a great year with six wins, three losses, and one tie. "It was a good year overall," stated Coach Benny Edens. "They practiced hard and played hard." Our Pointers won the unforgettable Homecoming football game against Patrick Henry with the score being 31-0. We were also able to keep the ever traditional shoe. Coach Edens expects to have a great year, next year, for half of the team is returning.

J.V. FOOTBALL

When August comes around the J.V. football players are siked for the season. It is again time to pull out the jerseys and get ready for some serious action. On the field it's a whole different world. The players are filled with anxiety and determination.

This years Junior Varsity Championship Football Team was one of outstanding calibre.

"The offense led by Mike Bennett and Ace Logan was one of the best in recent years," comments Steve Cota.

"But, the real strength of our team was the bone-crushing defense, which on the average only gave up 5½ points a game.

Look for names on next years Varsity team like, Anthony Shelton, David Cipranic, Bob Brasher, Fransisco Bogarine and Steve Cota to help win another championship for our "Fighting Pointers."

EASTERN LEAGUE CHAMPS

Point Loma's Varsity volleyball team was one to be proud of. Winning nine matches out of ten, the team earned first place in the Eastern League. These victories did not come easy, however. The team had long, hard practices in preparation for each match.

The team worked very well together. As Coach Craig put it, "A setter can't look good unless she gets a good pass, and a hitter can't look good unless she gets a good set." The team made each pass, set, and hit count.

Many of the team players also got recognition on the Eastern League Team. Aside from receiving MVP of the Eastern League, Jessica Benton shared First League Team with Jennifer Rodi. Rosie Shillinger and Jil Mayfield made the Second Team, and Kathy Ward received an honorable mention.

"Each player on the team gave 100%, and that's why we were so good," stated Jil Mayfield. The team has every right to be proud of its hard work and accomplishments.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Just a step behind the varsity, the junior varsity followed their footsteps and tied for first place in their division. In addition to gaining such recognition, the team welcomed a new coach, Mrs. Kraft. Aside from only having experience in coaching her own league soccer team, Mrs. Kraft coached wonderfully as you can see by the team's winning record.

Throughout the season, junior varsity played their best in every game. With encouragement from fellow team members, they hustled and definitely were "down-and-dirty." Surely after all their hard work, they deserved the first place position.

With four returning players, junior varsity had a strong starting line up. Although the team was fairly large with thirteen players and not everyone always played, they kept up their spirit and cheered on their team mates. With returning setter, Heather Davis, and first year setter, Noelle Soares, the team was able to play a well rounded offense and strong defense. Whenever Point Loma played, they played tough and never got discouraged and quit. We will definitely see some of these talented, young girls play up to their potential on the varsity in the future.

BOY'S CROSS COUNTRY

Both Varsity and J.V. had a very good year. Trained by Coach Parry, the boys were in good shape which led to many wins.

Varsity did well, placing first in the Mt. Miguel Invitational. They also beat Patrick Henry (a long-time rival) in the city championship, placing third out of 18 teams.

J.V. did well, also; beginning with an early-September camping trip for training purposes. J.V. went on to out run Mira Mesa and Mt. Miguel high schools, as well as many others throughout San Diego county.

The girls cross country team put out a lot of effort for an accomplishing year. They practiced at least four days a week to prepare for their meets. These practices consisted of "intervals" which the girls ran up to seven miles a day around areas such as Mission Bay, Point Loma College and many other scenic places in San Diego.

Michelle Lubinsky, Claudia Neto & Anna Neto helped the team score many winning points. "I think we were trying to reach our top potential through the season by placing fifth in CIF finals" stated coach Barnett. Michelle, who made CIF first team, came in third place at CIF finals, Claudia came in fifth place and Anna came in thirteenth place.

GIRL'S CROSS COUNTRY

"Like the Santa Ana winds rippling the waters of the pool, Point Loma left Mira Mesa, high and dry in a water polo match," as stated in the October 23rd issue of the Star-News. The Varsity team went on to win 3 out of 5 of their league games to capture third place.

There were many contributing factors to the success of Point Loma's water polo team. This year the varsity team had three All-Conference players: Robin Bregman, and team captains, Scott Rion and Susan Ortwein.

The season had a great start with a victory over Carlsbad. From there, the team's morale could not be stronger. All members of the team played an important part in supporting each other. Even when playing two of the top 5 rated teams, Point Loma did not give up. Aside from the fact that the new coach, Mr. Rich, had not been involved with water polo since 1976, he managed to make the year very successful.

WATERPOLO

Point Loma's girls tennis team finished third in the Eastern League this year. With outstanding seniors, totaling eight, the team was destined for victory. Among those eight, three were three-year veterans of Point Loma's varsity team. (Kristen Churchill, Kim Loadman, and Valerie Austin).

Contributing to the teams success, there was also an exceptional effort put forth by the underclassmen. Playing as a doubles team Hayley Lutes and Debra Chapman, both underclassmen, went on to become Eastern League finalists and eventually participants of the C.I.F. competitions.

Awards were presented to select players, acknowledging exceptional qualities. The award of Outstanding Player (singles) was given to Debra Chapman. The Outstanding Player (doubles) went to Valerie Austin. Also receiving an award was Kim Daras for being the most improved player. Both Audrey Pritchard and Amy Lightner were presented with the Best Sportsmanship Award. And receiving the Sid Davis Memorial Award for The Most Inspiring Player was Hayley Lutes.

In the end the girls varsity tennis team had a record of six wins and four losses. A very impressive finish considering, "the fact that there was a new format using exponents which meant that they (the girls) were forced to be more competitive among themselves," says Coach Watson.

AN INTENSE SEASON!

The boy's 1986 Varsity basketball team definitely had its share of ups and downs this year. They showed signs of being serious contenders throughout the season.

The team consisted of seniors except for Fran Meredith and Bob Brasher who should be returning next year to lead the young, new team. Seniors Ken Dunaway, Richard Clark, and Dale Bryant made All-Eastern League team with Rich and Dale being two of the high scorers on the varsity. Inspiring players such as point-guards, David Rohnow and Jim Brasher were the quarterbacks of the team. They both executed outside shots to score points for the Pointers.

The team as a whole played excellent defense and offense as well. The many fans who attended each game this year were not disappointed by shut-out games. Each game was intense and exciting due to the boy's hard work and efforts to play a good game and win. Although the boys didn't do as well as they had hoped, "they played close games and were never blown out," stated Jim Brasher. In the future we shall see a young, talented team play up to their potential and go far . . .

J.V. Boys Basketball started off with great enthusiasm. Along with a lot of new players, came a new coach, Mr. Hollis, who brought new inspiration to the team. Mr. Hollis commented that it was a very young team and continued to improve as the year progressed. He feels that many of the J.V. players will move up to the varsity team next year. The team was spirited and proud of its school.

The Lady Pointers are considered to be the best defensive team in San Diego County. But then again, why wouldn't they be with All-Eastern League 1st team players Terri Mann, Jessica Benton, Chanelle McCoy, Michelle Collum, and second team player Liza Carrillo, Monica Filer and Lois Guillory received an honorable mention. Junior Terri Mann, who is Eastern League's Player of the Year, also received Parade, Street and Smith, and USA Today All-American. She is also expected to try out for the 1988 Olympics. She is definitely a talented player and an asset to the team.

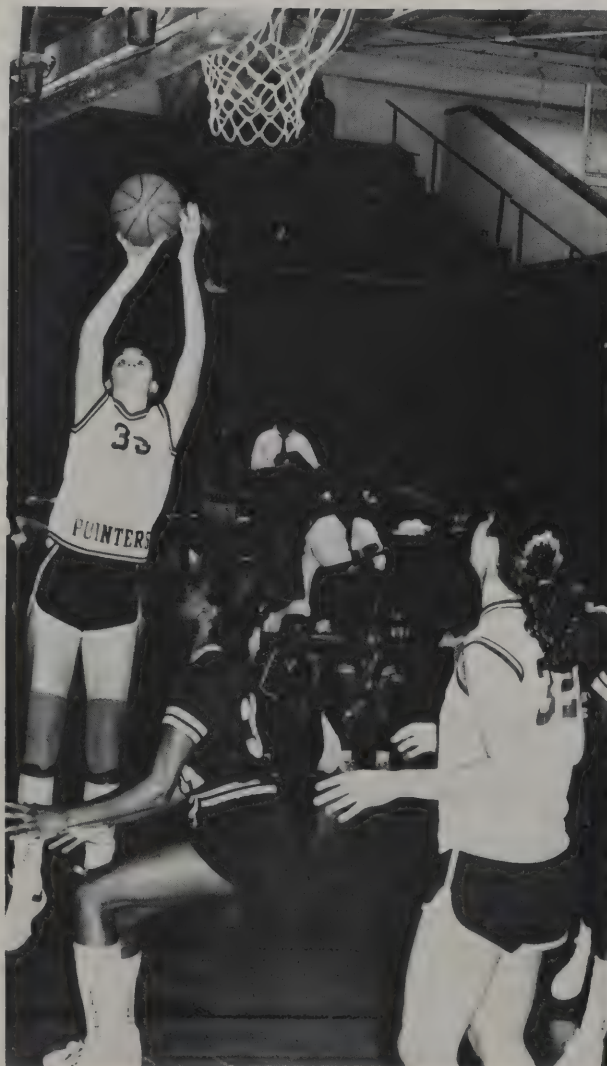

Of course the starters couldn't have done it without the help of their teammates Jill Cataldo, Maureen Carey, Kim Tullis, and Serena Timmons. Their hard work, effort, enthusiasm, and sportsmanship contributed much to this very talented team.

Pt. Loma High had definitely seen one of the best teams in the nation right here in San Diego. They have contributed much to girls athletics and earned their well-deserved respect.

Coach "T", who has done much for the girls, sums it up the best with, "Hard work produces champions," which the Lady Pointers definitely are!!

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The J.V. consisted of 11 young, talented girls who played a good season with lots of effort. Along with new team members came a new coach, coach Gerber. Her fresh, new face brought inspiration to the team and with it personal friendships were developed.

In the future we shall see some of these girls playing up to their potential on Varsity. Good luck to those that do get moved up. And to those that play on J.V., may all their hard work pay off by having an excellent season next year.

BOYS SOCCER HAS SPIRIT

"I believe in this team and by God you should believe in it too!" This is what the boys heard all season long from their new, irish-accented coach, Mick Ward. With the new coach came a new inspiration for the team.

Each player was full of dedication and support for their team. Their dedication showed in their games. Their games were intense and action packed. The highlight games of the season were against Madison and Morse. Against Madison, the team was down 0-2 at the half, and came back to win the game 4-2. The Morse game was tied 0-0 till the last minute of the game when team captain Scott Tatum scored the winning goal. "Well I think we deserved to win because we were more psyched and we wanted it more," stated Scott when asked about the game.

Senior Roger Groom commented, "I was bummed we didn't win CIF my senior year, but the team still has a good chance next year." Ben Kreusser agreed with Roger stating, "The team's losing a lot of good seniors, but they can still do it next year."

GIRLS SOCCER HAS A BALL

"Our league is really difficult, and any team can win on any given day," is how Jill Mayfield summed up the season.

This year there were many young and new players, which contributed much to the team. These new players mixed well with the returning players, and the whole team got along great.

Third year player Jennifer Rodi said, "Our season started out slow, and by the time we got it together it was the end of the season and that was too late. But, we had a good time anyway. It was a lot of fun."

The team has good potential for next year. The girls have the necessary talent to make a winning team.

GIRLS SOCCER

1986 was a good year for the Point Loma Rifle Team. They worked hard all year and it paid off. They beat Lincoln and Oceanside and made it all the way to finals. Their last match was against San Diego High and they won. This win put them in first place this year.

Besides coming in first place the Rifle Team did other exciting things. They shot a match for the Secretary of the Navy and they also shot at the NTC Field Day.

The team is made up of both Varsity and J.V. members. They can not do better than first place, but they are all looking forward to a good year again next year.

This year's Point Loma Wrestling Team gave it their all. "There was a lot of commitment involved and the wrestlers took the team very seriously," commented Matt Cintas.

They had a share of wins along with losses, but that didn't stop their determination. It took long hours of practicing, sweating, and true dedicated team-manship to make the team work. "We're looking forward to another killer year," said Dan Becker.

"This year's team played every aspect of the game fundamentally sound," said pitching ace Chris Reading. This year the Pointers jumped out to a 5-0 start, and were early favorites to capture the Eastern League. The team, decked out in new pin-striped uniforms, were almost all returning veterans. "We have all played ball together since Little League," said returning All-League outfielder Walt Edwards. This team had a promising season, both in league play and in their quest for C.I.F. championship.

Pt. Loma's Varsity softball played with a strong team, with many returning players such as Marcie Dominguez, Tammy Hopkins, Kathy Ward, Bernedette Cardoza, Jamie Price and Krissy Hudelston. "There was a feeling of closeness," stated Tammy Hopkins.

The talent on the Varsity is overwhelming. But talent isn't all the girls have. Their gutsy, give-it-all-you've-got attitudes made them go far this year. They never gave up, even when they fell behind. Part of this attitude is due to the coaching of Miss Craig, who always says, "The game isn't over till it's over."

To improve batting averages, every girl had a partner and made bets before the game. This close knitted team celebrated after games by "paying up" their bets.

Rachel Meske, left fielder and first year varsity player said, "I was really shocked that I made the team, and I can look forward to another year when I'm a senior."

Pt. Loma's softball team played an excellent season this year, and we are sad to see so many seniors leaving us.

JV SOFTBALL STRIVES FOR VICTORY

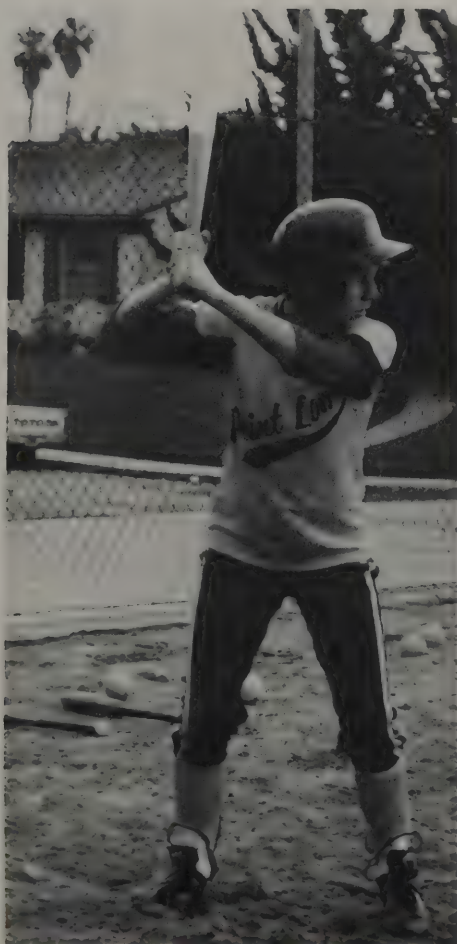

As usual, this year's JV softball team was full of new players, with only four returning players from last year. With basically a whole new team, it was hard for coach Watson to position people where they would best help the team. Pitching was a difficult area to cover this year, after having lost last year's pitcher to varsity. Mrs. Watson had most of the girls on the team work on pitching, and she hoped to find someone she could rely on throughout the season. "This year I was looking for people who looked like they had potential to make the varsity team, but who also needed a year of experience on the junior varsity," commented Coach Watson. Mrs. Watson also stated, "Being coach for the JV team is hard for me. I only get to work with most of the girls for one year, then they move up to varsity. But, of course, that's better for the girls."

J.V. SOFTBALL

The boys swim team is at it again. The team members practiced from 1:30 to 3:00 o'clock everyday, after school at the Peninsula Y.M.C.A. For the team to be in top condition, they swam three to four thousand yards per day. The boys worked on their breast stroke, butterfly, free style, and back stroke, for the team to be tough against competition. "Even though there are many beginning Freshmen on the team, this year we strived more toward winning," commented Peter Crabtree.

Two of the outstanding swimmers were Scott Ryan and Dean Asher. They both help the team score many winning points against their opponents, such as Mira Mesa and La Jolla. As Robin Bregman put it, "Due to the brilliant and dazzling coaching, we became an instant success when our bodies hit the water."

BOYS SWIM

"This year, the girls swim team was much bigger than last year," commented Pheonix Coverly. The members practiced every day after school from 1:30 to 3:30 at the Pennisula Y.M.C.A. Practices consisted of kick boards and special weights to condition various parts of their body. The girls also specialized in different types of strokes such as breast, butterfly, and back which are very important for competition.

Even though many of the members were beginning freshmen. EThe girls began the season with a positive attitude toward competition. Some of the promising swimmers this year were Lisa Clark, Susan Ortwein and Marilyn Peck. With coach Rich, talented swimmers, and the team spirit, the girls team did nothing less than have a great season.

Point Loma Boys Varsity Tennis has a reputation for being a strong Eastern League team. In the 1984-85 season the team won the Eastern League and went on to compete in the CIF tournament.

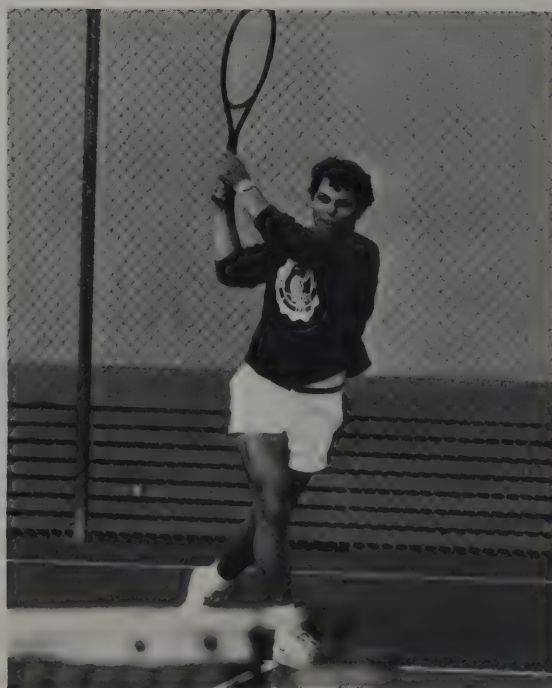

This year the team continued its winning streak with returning players such as the ever consistent Jim Randerson; Frank (The Train Man) Renwidk; Dean, The Tennis Machine, Huard; John, The Stud, Ray; and Bruce Bossler. The tennis team also acquired a considerable amount of new talent such as Kelly "Boy Wonder" Mountain, a high ranking competitive local player, Mark Lareau, Scott Weid, and Matt Tyson. The team would also like to extend gratitude to Bobby Alexander, the three year veteran coach. Dean Huard adds, "Thanks for the pep talks coach."

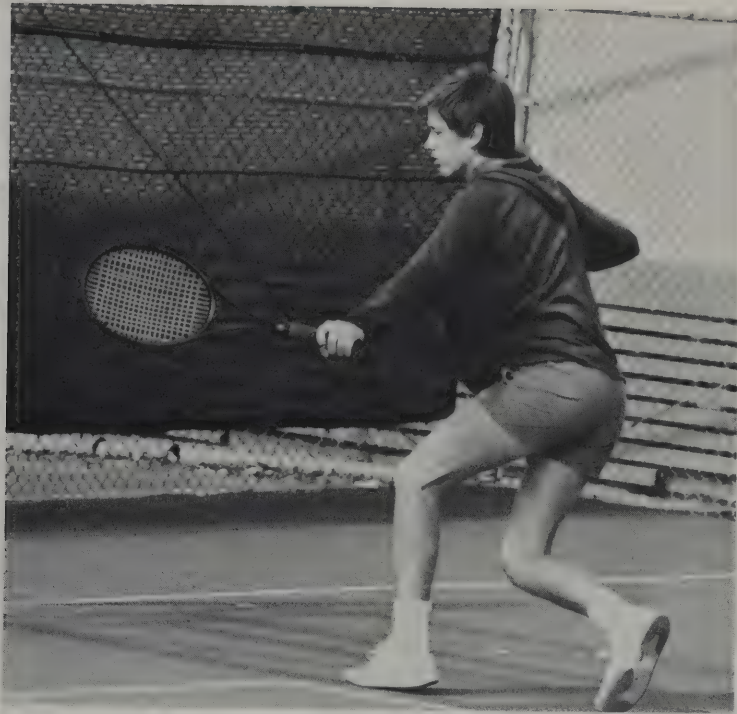

"This excites me!"

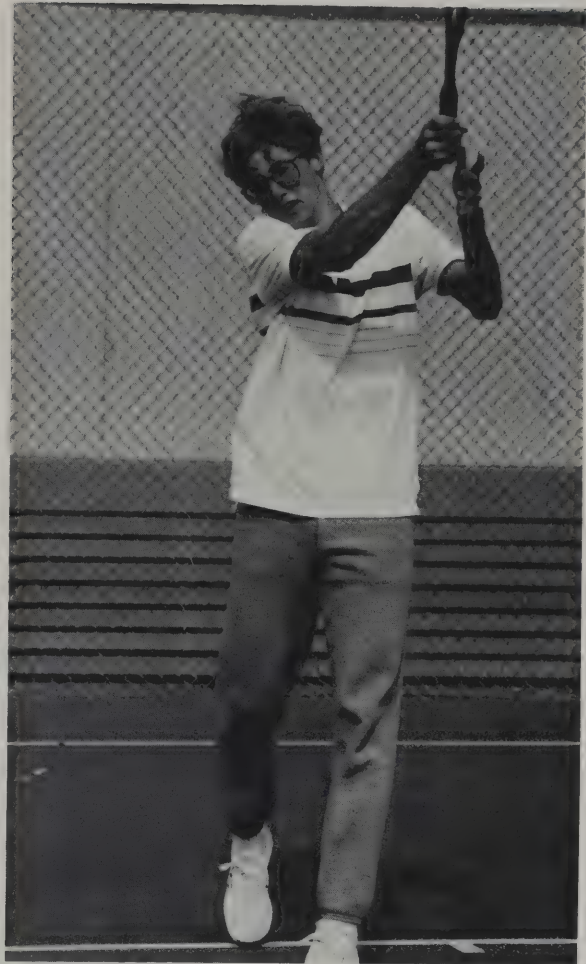

"Michelob for the winner."

"I'll flex for you"

GYMNASTICS

This year's girls gymnastics team had a very promising season. There was a lot of new talent, and all it took was some hard practices and experience to be successful. The team was spurred on by top gymnasts such as Tammy Stevenson, Becky Wilson, Rachel Grodner, Kim Davis, and Ana Lisa Lauer. Erin Hose sums it up best by saying, "Team effort and dedication are essential factors in order to make this a team!"

SOMETHING NEW FOR PL

Something has finally come along that the men of PL have been waiting for a mens volleyball team. "I'm really excited about the team. I've been waiting to play volleyball for the school on a boys team," commented Miles Warren. Another team member, Travis Berggren, said, "It's great that I got a chance to play volleyball in high school, and I'm looking forward to next year."

This team has opened up a new opportunity for the boys at the school. Boys that don't play any of the other sports here at PL now have the chance to try volleyball. This year the team had players with a good background of volleyball, along with players that had little or no experience in the sport. Also, putting the team in the spring season lets the fans enjoy volleyball twice a year — watching the girls in the fall and the boys in the spring.

BOYS CLUB VOLLEYBALL

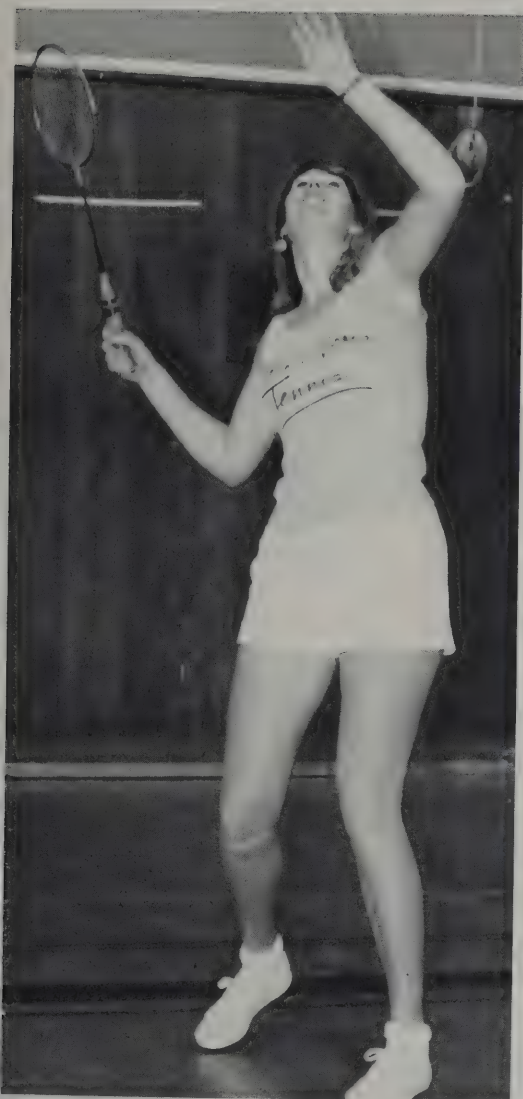

The 1986 J.V. baseball team started off the season with a wet field, but with great enthusiasm. There was a lot of talent to be developed and not a lot of time to develop it. Coach David Aros put a lot of effort into this team and even though they did not win a lot of games, they learned a lot.

The boys worked hard in daily practice knowing success in games depended upon the understanding and executing of the basic fundamentals. Mental discipline and physical condition are also highly stressed. They worked to develop an attitude which helped them achieve their goals.

This year's coed badminton team was small but full of energy. With only six returning players, the team had to start anew and teach the new students the finesse and strategy it takes to be a badminton player. "We hope to find as much talent this year as we had last year," commented Kendra Fortbrook.

Among this year's returning players were Kendra Fortbrook and Nancy Zeiner who are the only seniors on the team. Kendra played number two woman's singles and number one mixed doubles last year, while Nancy was the number three woman's single player, number two mixed doubles, and was team captain. This year the two competed for the number one singles spot. Both the third and fourth spot were filled by Lillian Greengrass and Brenda Moffit.

Although the number of men on the team was small, talent and competition was large. Top contenders among the boys were returning players, Grant Goad and Nat Gordon, along with first year players, David Carlisle, Neil Hoff and Jim He.

All in all, Point Loma's badminton team was full of determination and perseverance and had what it took to be a team. Like every year, the top seeded women and men in both singles and doubles went on to play at the CIF playoffs at Balboa's Federal building. In the end, "all of the hard work, frustration and teamwork paid off," stated Nancy Zeiner. Hopefully, in the future, Point Loma's badminton team will be widely recognized by the school and in turn, more students will be interested in the challenge this sport entails!

Point Loma Track sparked an interest in many of P.L.'s athletes this year. The team consisted of several dedicated and budding young track stars. Ruben Mestre states, "It's a new experience," to sum it up for all the first-year participants. The boys and girls devoted much of their time perfecting speed, endurance, skill, good sportsmanship and morale. Track and Field is one of the most diversified sports at P.L. The team competes in the distance running, hurdles, long jump, high jump, pole vault, discus and shot.

The team competed in many meets throughout the season. They began with a meet at University City vs. Mt. Miguel. The thrill and fear of competing is in everyone. Joseph Besand states, "I've been running for six years, and I still get nervous!" Joseph is one of the strongest runners on the team. Although a Sophomore, he has set records in the city. He specializes in the 400 and the 800. Kevin Gilson and Marshall Madruga also contribute to the strength of the team. Len Carillo commented, "There are certain runners who stand out, but basically, our team works as equals. Track and Field is also a sport that you can push yourself individually, but still contribute to the team." Michelle Lubinsky and Claudia and Anna Neto prove to be some of the most dedicated girls on the team. They have been training throughout summer and Cross Country season. Coach Barnett and Perry feel good conditioning is a must, if the team wants to do well in the league. Patrick Henry, Morse, and Mira Mesa are the toughest competitors for P.L. Many of the athletes are still Pointer Pups, striding together towards a promising future.

ACTIVITIES

Working At Club P.L.

The purpose of a yearbook is to record the activities and events for which it covers. Well, this years El Portal did a little more. The book took on a totally different form never before seen at Point Loma. "I wanted to do something creative and original this year," commented Editor Lara McGinty "so I came up with the Club P.L. concept, it seemed to fit the Point Loma lifestyle." Lara also added "Not only did we change the format of the book, but we also increased the number of pages by sixteen, eight of which were color."

The new staff this year included all Seniors and Juniors and two Freshmen. They had a lot of fun working with the Passport To P.L. theme. They put in long hard hours that included Saturdays and all-night working sessions. Everyday, fourth period, in room 203 you could find the staff either working diligently to meet a deadline or consuming munchies from Rudolphos or Sea Trader.

To learn how to put together a yearbook Karin Kellner and Lara McGinty attended a yearbook camp at USD this summer. "I don't think people realize the incredible amount of time, work and money that goes into publishing a yearbook," comments Karin "It is really a complicated process and people take it for granted."

Another problem the staff faced was the cost of the yearbook. People were quick to complain about the $25 and $30 price tag, but what they didn't realize is that El Portal receives no money from the school and is totally supported by its sales. A good book costs money to produce.

"I really hope everyone will enjoy the book," stated Lara and added in harsher words "They better after all the work we've put into it," Lara continued "I want this book to be remembered and not just put on the shelf to collect dust!"

Power of The Press

There is no doubt that this year's Pointer staff was one of the best ever. Never have the students and staff of Point Loma seen such quality work as seen from the Pointer. As editor-in-chief, Shannon Caudill replies, "This year has been the revival of the Pointer due to the enthusiasm and talent of our completely new staff. "Family" is what best describes the staff because of the closeness of each member."

The '85-'86 Pointer was fantastic and had many accomplishments. They were awarded scholarships and received awards from the Union/Tribune, the staff became even more eager and ambitious to bring us an exciting and creative newspaper.

As one of the reporters Melissa Garcia concludes, "The Pointer was indeed a success this year, and I'm glad I got to be a part of it. I loved all of the people on the staff including our advisor Ms. Smith. I'm looking forward to another great success next year."

Key Club Presents . . .

... once again one of the largest clubs in the nation. Consisting of over two hundred members, a community service organization, was the biggest club at Pt. Loma. Key Club, run by our dedicated advisor, Paul Shank, was very active this year. Members helped out at the Heart of San Diego Marathon, and were security guards at the Balboa Park Haunted Museum. The Key Club also presented an outstanding float "Peter Pan in Never-Never Land" at Homecoming. It won two of the three awards, Most Original and Best Overall. Due to the long hours, hard work, and effort spent designing the float, many members, especially Gary Griffiths, efforts were rewarded.

Aside from last years contribution, the walkway, Key Club was extremely successful in starting a Safe Rides chapter here in Pt. Loma. A dance which featured the Monsters, was held as a fund raiser to promote Safe Rides. Every Friday and Saturday night, as well as holidays, many members volunteered as drivers and operators to assist any students needing a ride home.

Even though Key Club was involved in many community projects, there were always plenty of fun activities to participate in. The annual mistletoe sales, and the rainy Disneyland trip. Of course, who could ever forget the ever popular ski trip to Mammoth, where Key Club members spent two fun filled days on the slopes. This year the snow conditions were excellent, but the bus ride and food were another story. Kristen Churchill, president, sums it up by stating, "We had some really dedicated people this year, and a lot of fun, especially on the ski trip!"

Interaction With Mexico

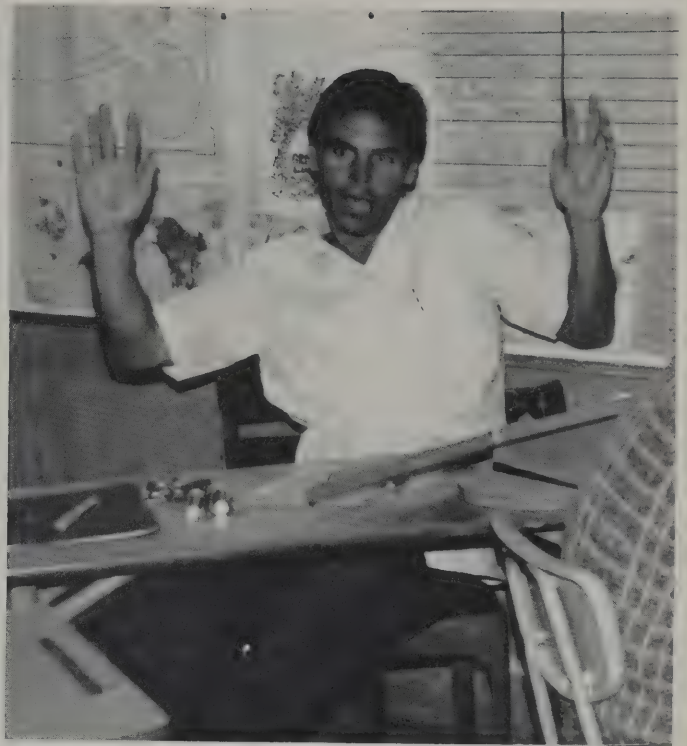

Interact was revived for the 1985-86 school year. Meetings were held every week, which explained all of the activities that Interact participated in. Mexican Earthquake victims received some relief from Point Loma's Interact Club. Mexico was well represented in the activities of Interact in other ways also. There were two trips to Ensenada where the members of Interact indulged themselves in the cultural benefits of Mexico.

Overall, Interactors portrayed themselves as the community service club that they are. Many thanks go to all the members and a special thought of appreciation to Mr. Simms, who was by far the most entertaining advisor a school club could ever have. Best of luck to the Senior Interactors, your participation was most appreciated!

Film Club Does It All

This years Film Club, led by teacher of the year Larry Zeiger, was very intimate. Getting all together and having fun was what it was all about.

Film Club members saw many movies together such as "Rebel Without a Cause," "The Color Purple," and the "Festival of Animation." Parties played a great role in this years Film Club and the members never stopped planning them, along with extravagant dinners and other social events.

Although Film Club considered fun as a major priority, it did show tremendous dedication to the San Diego homeless and the volcano disaster victims in Colombia. It raised over 500 dollars for each cause in just one and a half weeks. Everyone was very pleased at the success.

Over all, the 1986 Film Club was deliriously exciting, with each member contributing to make this year's Film Club the best one Point Loma ever had.

Initiating Spirit!

This one year old club has done much to promote school spirit. They attended various school related events and really got people involved. This club gives people who do not have the time to be dedicated to a cheer squad, a chance to get involved and show school spirit. The members meet once a week to discuss the week's activities. Their duties include painting signs, chanting along with the cheerleaders at games, and last, but not least, to promote spirit throughout the school. Varsity cheer captain, Lara McGinty sums it up best by saying, "The Pep Club was our best supporter, they were always there to initiate spirit!"

P.L. Does It to a Beat

This years '85-'86 Marching Band Unit consisted of 50 members. There were 15 members in the Drill Team, 5 members in the Flag Team, 23 members in the Band and 7 members in the Drum Corps.

The Marching Band, led by Bill Kirkemo and Danny Wall, attended various parades such as; The Mother Goose Parade, The La Jolla Christmas Parade, and others. They acted as a Pep Band for Varsity Football games, and Girls Basketball games. They also performed spectacular field shows, as they did for the Homecoming Football Game.

The Drill Team, led by Cherease Basey, looked mighty fine out on the field, as well as out in the quad and performing for Basketball half-times.

The Drum Corps, led by Rachel Meske, was the beat behind the Band. They kept the Marching Unit on step with their rockin' cadences, such as; "The Compton Beat" and "The Say What?!" cadence.

POINT LOMA HIGH BAND

OLE, La Programa Bilingue

The Bilingual Magnet is a special program offered at Point Loma High School. In the bilingual classes students are constantly surrounded by native speakers. For a typical Junior bilingual student, the schedule includes bilingual Spanish and history. The history class is half in English, and half in Spanish. Mixed classes provide an excellent opportunity to practice speaking the language with a native speaker. After the Bilingual Programa large majority of the students go on to pass the AP Spanish Test.

The Bilingual Program is not just a way to satisfy the foreign language requirement for college. The program offers many field trips that are educational, while having a great time. Some of the trips throughout the year have been to Farmers Market, Museum of Man, and the L.A. County Museum of Art. In the beginning of the year all members had a picnic on Mission Bay. March 7, there was a camping trip to Palomar Mountain. The weekend included hikes, games, food and talent shows.

The Bilingual Program encourages students to speak and use the language, benefitting their everyday lives.

Kim O'Hara, Judy Sandweiss, Ingri Quon and Marcos Armendariz converse about "bilingual" topics during class.

Singing With Spirit

Girl's choir enjoyed a productive and spirited year in '86, with a lot of members returning from the year before. They began with serious rehearsals on theory, sight-singing, and technique. By December they performed a lovely winter concert singing a program of Channukah and Christmas music. Next came their stirring performance in February honoring Dr. Martin Luther King. Other concerts included a Spring program and caroling in Balboa Park, by the dedicated members of the choral ensemble. Mr. Thumm's one-word response to this year's choir is "Bravo!!!"

Viva La France

This years French Club consisted of 25 members, which was considerably larger than last year. The officers of the club did an excellent job of coordinating activities for the year. The Homecoming float entitled "Le Marchand de Sable," The Sandman, was a success. Other activities included Christmas caroling at USD and a Pot Luck party to acquaint the French foreign exchange students with our French Club. According to Mrs. Pritchard, the French Club advisor, "The year was a complete success!"

Willy Darling, Neil Hoff, Michelle Deligencia, Mark Miller, Partick Lemieux, Karen Bradshaw, Elizabeth Hernandez, Melissa Kimall, Tracy Eldon, Amy Boisvert, Natalie Turegun, Karen Miller, Sheryl Crowel, Gina Gomes, Tina Bochart, Marci Collette, Alison Denchars, Fidelina Sifuentes, Mike Samples, Kathryn Miller, Jacquelin Le, Sofia Aguilar, Leona Baxter.

President Michelle Deligencia, Vice-President Paul Bergman, Secretary Gina Gomes, Treasurer Mike Samples, Historian Fidelina Sifuentes.

Adding Foreign Flair

The enthusiastic Spanish Club began the school year by competing in the Homecoming float parade. The float entitled "Fantasia" won for the best use of theme. The Spanish Club has a reputation for annually winning an award in the parade. This is a result of the cooperation and pride the members have in their club.

The Spanish Club attended a conference held at San Diego State University. The workshops were to educate students about careers, such as; engineering, financial aid, journalism, business, survival in college, and many more. The conference was held over a nine hour time period. When the students weren't attending workshops, there was entertainment, food and speakers. The conference helped the members with many career choices for the future.

Socially, the club had many activities. The Spanish Club challenged Interact to a softball game, the winners all received pizza. Other clubs also participated in the games. Dances, movies and meetings were among some of the activities planned for the year.

The 1985-86 school year proved to be the best yet for the Spanish Club, and next year promises to be even better.

Surfs Up

This year Point Loma was able to get together some people to start a "surf club." Meetings were held at school and run by Don Jaeckels, the team captain. Most of the time they just surfed for fun, but there were also some serious competitions held in Ocean Beach. The surfers range in experience. Many of them are sponsored by South Coast Surf Shop. Team Captain, Don Jaeckels is sponsored by some well known names like "Local Motion" and "Aleeda Wet Suits." "The team was another excuse just to get in the water and take all our aggressions out on the waves," commented Ira Tweed. With dedication like this, the Surf Team will continue to grow throughout the years.

P.L. Hits the Slopes

This year the Ski Club members really outdid themselves. Although they only took one trip, the excitement was enough to last the whole year. The two Ski Club advisors, Ms. Lyon and Mrs. McClure, arranged for the entire group of rag-tag skiers to fly to Purgatory, Colorado. The trip was taken over Spring vacation and the snow and ski conditions were the best. Everyone had a fun time and the '85-'86 Ski Club was definitely a memorable one!

Production Successes

"RUNAWAYS" was the first of two drama productions this year. It was based on the problems of real runaways. The setting of the stage was a runaway shelter.

The lead players, Bill Jackson (Scott Moeller), who is in charge of the shelter and Linda Hawthorne (Sam Loureiro), who is a college girl on temporary assignment, did an excellent job. Other talented players included, Stephanie Barker, Dana Salston, Robb Neal, Robby Owens, Halle Stanford, Elisabeth Caetano, Suzy Guy, Traci Carter, and Gina Mascarenhas to name a few.

The play took many hours of rehearsal and strong dedication from all cast members. In addition, the cast members actually visited a runaway shelter in East County to obtain information to help develop the characters. During the visit, the cast became aware of the shortage of funds facing the runaway shelter. As a result the Thespians decided to add an extra performance as a benefit for Gatehouse. The 1985/86 Thespians donated over $500.00 thanks to the support of the school.

The second production of the school year was "GREASE." It was an excellent performance and featured Kevin Nickleson as Danny and Jennifer Fulton as Sandy.

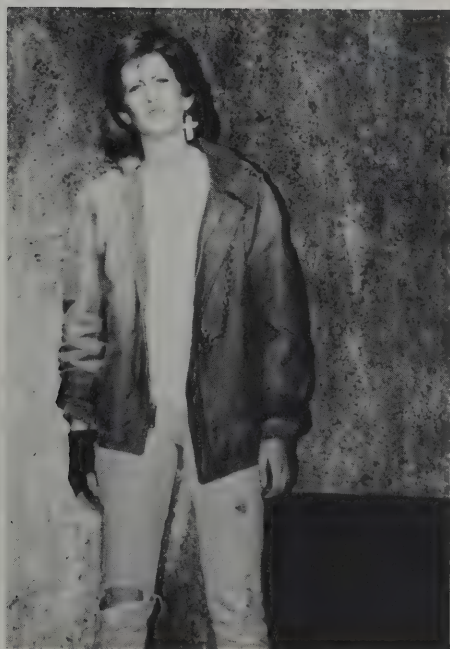

Bill Jackson (Scott Moeller) grins with satisfaction.

Linda Hawthorne (Sam Loureiro) is in deep thought contemplating her session with group.

Gretchen (Gina Mascarenhas) and Mary (Julie Gildred) share a brief moment of happiness.

"You said it was my decision!" exclaims Sybil (Elisabeth Caetano) to Bill, as Linda looks on.

"Did we have to die too?" laments Diedra (Jennifer Fulton).

"SHHH, Footsteps," whispers Nicki (Lisa Morin).

Bill comforts Linda in vain.

Thespians

The Thespians started out the year with the excellent production of "Runaways." One of the major accomplishments of Thespians this year was the donation given to Gatehouse, the runaway shelter in East County.

The second production, "Grease," was completely opposite the first. Whereas "Runaways" was a very serious production dealing with real problems, "Grease" was a light, musical comedy about two teenagers in love.

At the beginning of the school year the Thespians and drama students were surprised with the newcomer Anne Krill. It took a while for her to become familiar with the crazy antics of the Thespians, but by the time two successful productions were under their belts, everyone was accustomed to the professionalism and insights Anne Krill offered to the Thespians and the productions.

"We Go Together"

"Oh no, I am so nervous. Props! Where are my props? Oh, never mind, here they are, right where I left them! What? Are you crazy? Only a ten minute intermission, no way, we can't change that fast!!"

Just a couple of the typical comments heard every night before the opening of the Playmakers production of "Grease." "Its turnout was a great success and the money was worth it too, and the casting was done with perfection, I've never seen a better casted show," commented theater critic Nancy Zeiner. The scenery and costumes were excellent and the ideas of Director Anne Krill were unique, and made the show the success it really was. The excitement and fun afterwards was always memorable, giving hugs of congratulations, and handing out roses, and of course the echoing question ran through the P.A.C. every night, "Where's the party?!!!"

Here they are, the whole crew of "GREASE."

"Oh come on you guys, not again!!!" screams Eugene.

Jazzing It Up

"This year, the Jazz Band has really improved." The Jazz Band started about three years ago, and has been getting steadily better. Now Mr. Mitchell has three periods in which he can now help the band to improve their already great performances.

Even though the group didn't go on their annual Hawaii trip, they did perform in the Mother Goose parade, and several other local events.

"When I come back to homecoming next year, I'd like to see the band better than ever," said the band's fun loving Vice President, who's a senior.

Speech Team — A Winning Year

Each of us is a product or a victim of our communication skills. These important skills are developed through active competition with the Speech Team, which is open to all students.

Competitive events include: interpretation of humorous and dramatic literature, original prose and poetry; original oratory, expository (a demonstration); and advocacy (a speech to change the law).

We compete a year in preparation for state and national competitions, which are held in late March and April. In addition to trophies, Speech Team members can win money in the contests sponsored by the Lions, Optimists, and Rotary Clubs. Get involved with Speech Team, and open up new avenues for success.

SADD Comes to Point Loma

One of the most inspirational organization on campus this year is SADD, Students Against Drinking and Driving. The club was organized June 5, 1985, by President Angela Carmel, with a desire to promote students to refrain from drinking and driving. The SADD advisor Ms. Barkley, also had a strong desire to strive for students not to drink and drive. Angela

Carmel commented, "Our main emphasis is to promote sober driving, but we do not stress on people who drink, just the people who drink and drive." ASB Representative for SADD and Safe-Rides, Kathy Wright, concluded, "I feel that SADD is one of the most positive organizations on campus and if students lives are saved, then we owe Angela Carmel a big round of applause."

Don't Drink and Drive

One of the new clubs this year on campus is Safe-Rides, the organization of Students Helping Students. The club was organized to insure safety for students that are out on a Friday, Saturday or holiday night, who has had a bit too much to drink, well, then they can just pick up a phone and dial 223-0700 from 10 p.m. at night till 3 a.m. in the morning, for a safe ride home.

The Point Loma advisor Brian Freeborn commented, "Our main objective is to set up a program for you, the students, to save your own lives, and lives of friends. Also, we just want to inform students, the hazards of drinking and driving." In addition, Public Relations officer Kathy Wright stated, "I really feel this is an excellent program and is exactly what P.L. needs on account of all our social activities." The President Jim Gaskins concluded, "Keep friendship alive, don't drink and drive, call Safe-Rides!!!"

R.O.T.C. Pride Shows Through

"Our unit has proven that we have the pride that makes Point Loma great," said Cadet Lieutenant S.W. Caudill of this year's NJROTC unit at P.L.H.S. This year's ROTC was involved in many training programs, including a mini boot camp at the Naval Training Center and a cruise on the USS

Chandler. They also showed leadership and responsibility by briefing eight elementary schools on the dangers of drugs and orienteering a field trip to Camp Pendelton. To top it all off, the unit took first place at the San Diego NJROTC picnic.

Get Smart With CSF

CSF, the California Scholarship Federation is a group of students who achieve high scholastic marks. To become a CSF member a student must receive at least three A's and two B's in academic subjects. This organization is to encourage, reward, and recognize scholastic achievement by high school students. This is done by presenting badges, cash awards and certificates to seniors. "Implication for college admittance and scholarships are what made CSF worthwhile because being a member immediately targets you as a scholar," stated Lisa Morin, CSF President.

Although CSF members receive special consideration from the University of California, they are also given the opportunity to receive scholarships from private colleges who often give out scholarships based on CSF membership.

CSF is not only an educational club, members also get to participate in fun activities. Many of them enjoyed the theater trips such as "Mid-Summer Nights Dream" at the Globe. The club also offers an annual Disneyland trip which many of the members also enjoy.

Academic League at its Second Year

The Academic League is at its second year at Point Loma High School, and seems to be getting more popular every year. For those of you who haven't heard of the Academic League it consists of a group of students at Varsity and Junior Varsity levels, who compete against other schools at answering trivia questions. "Being in Academic League you are able to use mental abilities, instead of physical strength, which makes it more competitive," exclaimed Tom Harker.

The players from both levels meet on Mondays and Wednesdays during lunch, to quiz each other on various possible questions that might be asked in a game. The questions in the rounds are actually written and submitted by coaches of the Eastern Division Schools. In order to answer these questions, a student must review the basics of the known questions to be able to branch out and learn the more difficult questions.

Believe it or not, this year marked the tenth production year of the Gotta Sing — Gotta Dance Co. To celebrate the ten year reunion an extravagant and exciting musical titled "Look Into My Eyes" was performed under the superb direction of Larry Zeiger.

To put on such a spectacular show took the all-out effort of everyone involved. "It was a big challenge," emphasized Mr. Zeiger. The production staff included nine student directors and committees ranging from set directors to choreographers. Mr. Zeiger and the students put in many hours after school and on weekends to perfect the show. "I really dreaded those late-night rehearsals," commented Gartz Gould.

All the hard work proved to pay off. The show was "Fantastic" exclaimed Mr. Zeiger. "Look Into My Eyes" was divided into four sets that included: a reunion, a western bar, a surrealistic city, and a carnival in Rio. The sets were brought to life by such musical numbers as "It's DeLovely," "Belly Up To The Bar Boys," "Fever," and "Magic To Do."

Mara Cooper summed up the production by saying, "The show was the icing on the cake of my senior year." In closing Mr. Zeiger added, "All proceeds from this show will go to benefit the fund to rehabilitate the personalities of such people as Tad Bell, Kevin Nicholson, Tim Gallagher, Mark Klein, Ben Kreusser, and the list goes on!"

Fashion Theatre '86

Fashion Theatre '85 is a Human Relations activity whose goal is to promote integration at Point Loma High School. This activity functions as an integral part of San Diego school District's Integration Plan. It's the only Point Loma Integration Plan in existence. The production through the theatre and costume Design stages a drama for the creative intermingling of the various ethnic groups on the campus.

No, Title Wave, is not the new surf club on campus, but it is the name of Point Loma's own literary magazine which includes a collection of poems, stories and artwork originally composed by our students. This year will mark the second edition of Title Wave. The work of producing the magazine was accomplished by the advisor, Mrs. Bigge, the Writer's Workshop class and a lot of help from Mrs. Morin, Mr. Peterson, Mr. De Graw, and Mr. Ojeda.

"Everyone enjoys reading the surprising unexpected idea's in the heart's and head's of people they see only on the outside," Mrs. Bigge explained as her reason for starting Title Wave last year. "This year should be even better," she went on to say "because there were twice as many entries, more momentum and we knew where we were going." Title Wave came out in April. The school celebrated its arrival with a beach-party dance to promote it. It was all a wave of success!

“Heart to Heart”

It's six o'clock, oh no, I'm late! My date is going to be here any second. I am so embarrassed, my mom is just waiting downstairs to snap zillions of pictures of him. Ding, dong. Well, it's about time we leave, and off we go to the 1986 ASB Ball. “It was one of the best ever,” says Lara McGinty. This year it was held at the Hotel El Cortez in downtown San Diego. The entertainment included a band called “Cat Tracks,” which the ASB selected themselves, and but of course, “Music As You Like It.” Its theme was “Heart to Heart,” and oh what a night to remember!!

J. V. Cheer

At the beginning of the 1985-86 school year, it didn't look as though there would be a junior varsity cheer squad, but thanks to a few determined people, this squad was formed. In October, Mrs. Norma Heeter, a spirited Spanish teacher, took on the responsibility of taking over fifty girls and turning them into a uniform cheer squad of eleven. She, as did the varsity cheer squad, took a lot of time and effort to help build this squad. The dedication of all the people involved is definitely worthy of being commended. "I know what it took to get this squad, and I can guarantee you it was well worth it!" exclaimed Tammy Blackwell, a freshman on the squad.

SENIORS

A DAY IN THE LIFE

As the school year comes to an end, and the class of 1986 prepares to go into the "real world," Seniors may look back on the daily life that they are leaving here at Point Loma High.

Time played a major role in the daily life of a senior pointer this year. For the first time there was no senior parking, which meant that being early each morning was essential. But not to fear! Because time could be saved with the contribution of the walkway (completed early last September). And if neither of the above helped, then a senior missed a class. But not without his/her parents being informed of the unexcused absence by means of an electronically recorded voice that phoned home. What if there was a mistake and there was no absence? Logically, the parents would call the principal, Dr. Gauntlet. Sound reasonable? Not for long because with the graduation of the Class of '86, also graduates Dr. Gauntlet. It would seem that after 10 years of high school, one would hope that the Doctor would be able to graduate. And finally, at the end of a Pointer day, one could prepare for one of the many successful school dances. Beware! warns the Pointer faculty, the BREATHALIZER might be there. With that the daily life of a pointer comes to an end, but never without the constant terror of just one more physioworksheet or maybe one last poly. sci. paper.

As the Class of '86 departs from Point Loma High, one could only hope that the unity shared among the seniors this year will be passed on to future Senior Pointers. The friendships based upon our senior year are only reflections of the unity shared by all.

In closing, may the Class of '86 be blessed with the best of luck. And if times get a little tough out in the "real world," just remember the united Class of 1986, and those good ol' Pointer days.

Dr. James Gauntlett
Principal 1976-1986

In the history of Point Loma High School there have been many principals. However, few have contributed more time or effort to the success of the student body than Dr. James Gauntlett. This year, along with the Class of '86, Dr. Gauntlett is in a sense also graduating. After ten years of service as Point Loma's principal, Dr. Gauntlett is leaving.

One of the major contributions of Dr. Gauntlett is the time and tremendous effort he gave to the Walkway Project. Over thirty thousand dollars was raised in order to complete the concrete pathway, enabling students to walk between buildings without the use of stairs. This accomplishment for Dr. Gauntlett meant many extra hours on weekends and evenings spent representing Point Loma's student body. The actual process of fundraising began in 1982 when a young Melinda Roberts went to Dr. Gauntlett with the initial idea because her own physical disablement made it nearly impossible for her to both ascend and descend flights of stairs. Melinda was the motivational force Dr. Gauntlett needed. From that point on, Melinda and Dr. Gauntlett worked together and now, four years after the start, the walkway is completed; a concrete mark of accomplishment, dedicated to Melinda Roberts, and a symbol of the dedication Dr. Gauntlett has shown throughout his ten years at Point Loma.

Dr. Gauntlett may not have always made his presence known, but at nearly every school related activity he had been there, supporting the students of Point Loma High school. And much like many other dedicated people in life, Dr. Gauntlett has received little recognition for the work he has done to forward the education of tomorrow's future.

Point Loma High School will definitely be losing an incredible leader. Nevertheless, Point Loma's spirit of excellence will continue on, thanks to the principals like Dr. James Gauntlett, who have made a positive difference in the lives of so many Point Loma students.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR!

Out of all the well qualified teachers in the San Diego Unified School District there is, each year, an exceptional person chosen to be recognized as "Teacher of the Year." For the 1985-86 school year Point Loma High School was honored to have Mr. Larry Zeiger selected to hold this title.

Mr. Zeiger donated immense amounts of time to the student body of Point Loma. For years now, he has dedicated the second half of the school year to the production of the Gotta Sing-Gotta Dance Co. This entitles extensive work both after school and on weekends. The donation of time is especially meaningful to the all-senior cast of the production. Many alumni of Point Loma reflect on their senior year and remember most of all, the special times shared with their peers and Mr. Zeiger, when working on the completion of the show.

Mr. Zeiger has also taken it upon himself to be the faculty sponsor of the junior class, another subject to which much time is required. And in addition to that, he is also the founder and faculty sponsor to the Film Club, which brings about an acute awareness of modern cinema.

However, Mr. Zeiger would not have received this very honorable award had he not been an exceptional academic teacher. He teaches many levels of English, as well as his course entitled, "Contemporary Voices in Literature."

Truly, Mr. Larry Zeiger is among the extraordinary teachers of today. It is because of people like him that students enjoy learning, and strive to reach greater goals in life. Thanks to him, Point Loma High School has been able to maintain its spirit of excellence in education.

Mr. Zeiger — "Teacher of the Year"

Wrennie Sponsel

The Wrennie Sponsel Award for Excellence in Education

*Like a white tornado ready to blow
You arrived at Point Loma all ready to go
Your unbridled enthusiasm was a wonderful surprise
The contribution you'd make we never surmised
As a teacher of English you are truly advanced
And your students education is greatly enhanced
But that's only the beginning of the efforts you made
You soon adopted the entire tenth grade
The kids sold bunnies and candy galore
And soon their treasury had more and more
But we Love you not because you work so hard and so smart
We Love you because of your very big heart
You are a confidant to students and staff
And encourage us along Life's uneven path
We miss you, Wrennie, at our site
Your absence from us just isn't right
At the holiday season your classes adopted families in need
You're always there to encourage a good deed
We know you're trying with all your might
And you are putting up such a courageous fight
There are so very few words of comfort to say
And we don't want to add to the pain of your day
But we need you to know that your contributions are so dear
And that this award will be presented each year
To someone, bright, enthusiastic, and new
Who inspires each of us our best to do
It stands for excellence, Love, courage and more Because Wrennie Sponsel is who it is for.*

CLOSING

Closing of the Season . . .

The season has finally come to an end. As we look back we can reminisce about all the exciting times we shared as Club P.L. natives. We experienced many new and wonderful things. We went to dances, participated in clubs, played sports, made new friendships, and even managed to get an education.

Many of us will be returning next year, but for some of us this is our last season at Club P.L. As we leave and part for the summer we will take with us the memories of the time we spent as Club P.L. natives and we will always hold true our Passports to P.L.

AT CLUB P.L.

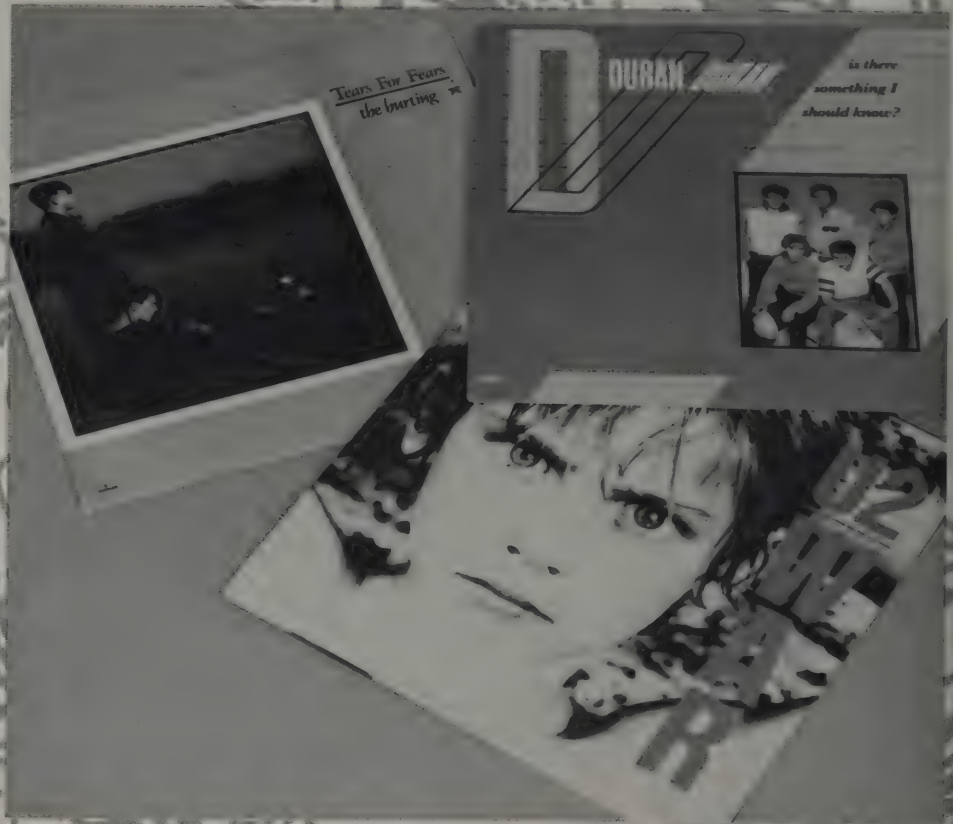

A Sign of the Times

Fads and Fashions at Club P.L.

As usual, fads and fashions play a large part in the lives of almost all high school students. The 1985-1986 school year brought many new and unique styles to P.L.'s campus.

Many students dress in the same way as when their parents attended high school. Flat-tops, high-tops in assorted colors, Reeboks and Levis were popular items for the boys this year. Not to mention paisley, oversized clothing, pearls, funky jewelry, college sweatshirts and GUESS? clothing for the girls. One item that really swept the campus this year was Swatch watches, for both boys and girls.

Music had an interesting year as well, though each person has their own preference of music. The Madonna look seemed to die a quick death as the singer faded from the music scene into family life. New Music, and heavy metal remained as popular as ever, as well as the older tunes from the sixties. These are your choices, for better or for worse!

Favorite Group (New Music)

1. Depeche Mode
2. U2
3. Wham!
4. Tears For Fears
5. Duran Duran

Favorite Group (Nostalgic)

PASSPORT

The '85-'86 school year is over. With it we have seen many changes, not only at Point Loma, but also in the world. These events have affected each and every one of us. The headlines of the year have included: the Mexican earthquake, Terrorism, the death of Rock Hudson and the AIDS scare, the Philippine election and the Marcos scandal, and the tragedy of the space shuttle Challenger explosion that shocked the nation. Closer to home we saw Roger Hedgecock resign from being mayor of San Diego after a guilty verdict in his trial.

On a happier note, '85-'86 also brought the Lottery to California to benefit education, Summit talks between Reagan and Gorbachev, and the popularity of the Cosby Show.

At Point Loma High this year marked the building of the long awaited Walkway, our own Mr. Zeiger becoming teacher of the year, the addition of the Holiday Ball, the continuing success of our Lady Pointers basketball team, and the farewell to our Principal Dr. Gauntlett.

TO THE

PAST

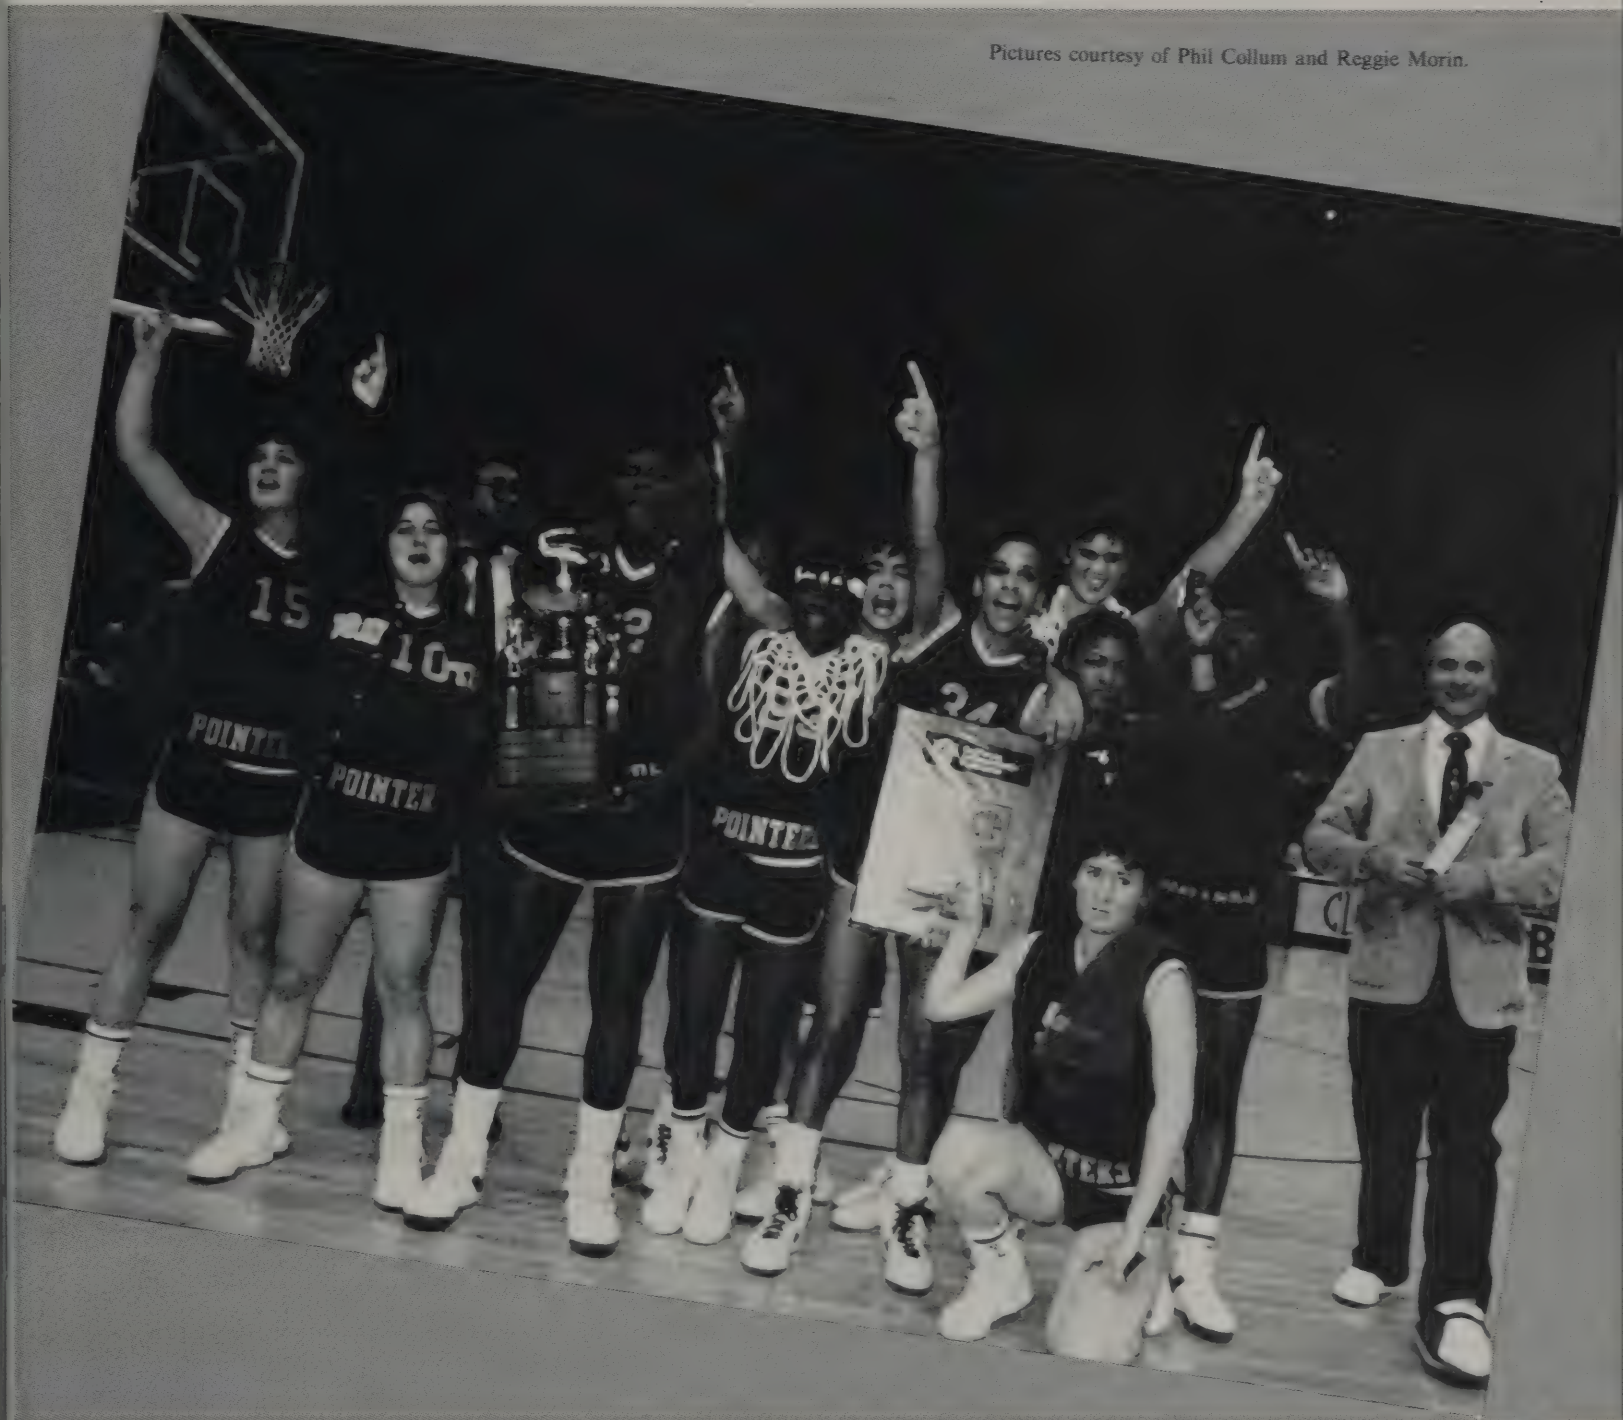

Lady Pointers

1. Lois, Serena and Terri try to contain their excitement after their victory over Lynwood in L.A.
2. Terri adds some points to the score that won the Division I state title in Oakland against Grant.
3. Michelle widens the score difference between P.L. and Monte Vista during their victorious game at the San Diego Sports Arena.
4. Chenelle shows off the familiar state champs trophy during the "welcome home" at the airport.

The girls' varsity basketball team did it again. For the third year in a row the girls have brought home the title of State Champions!

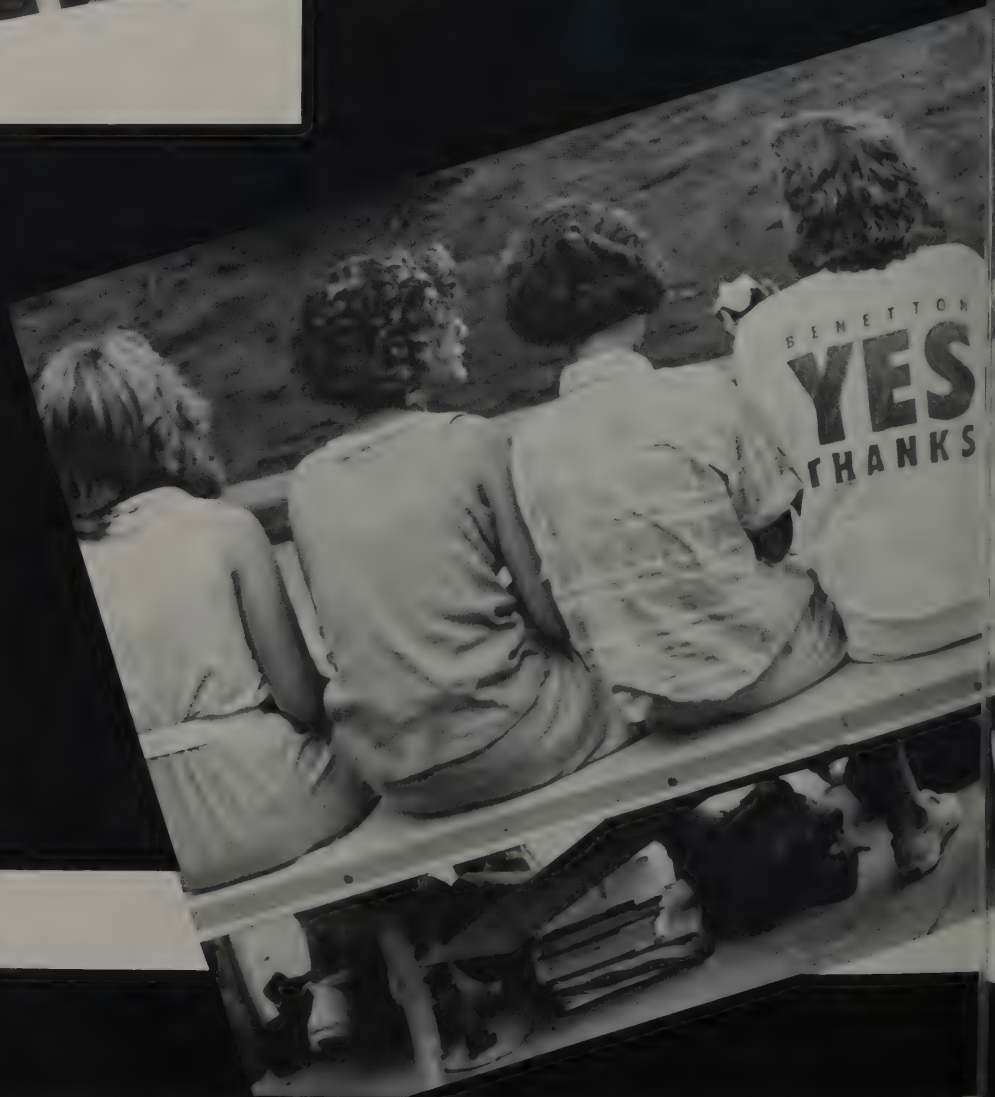

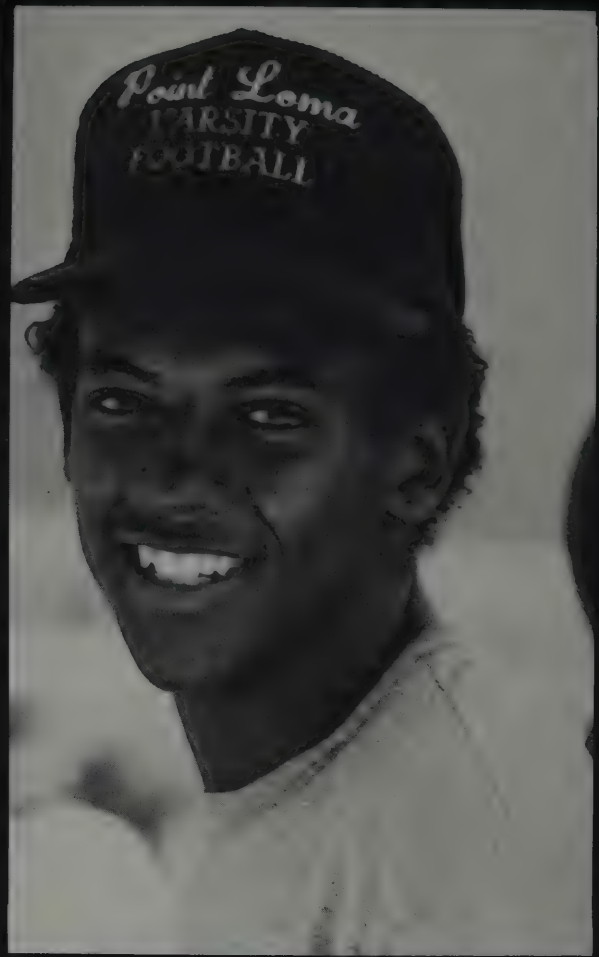

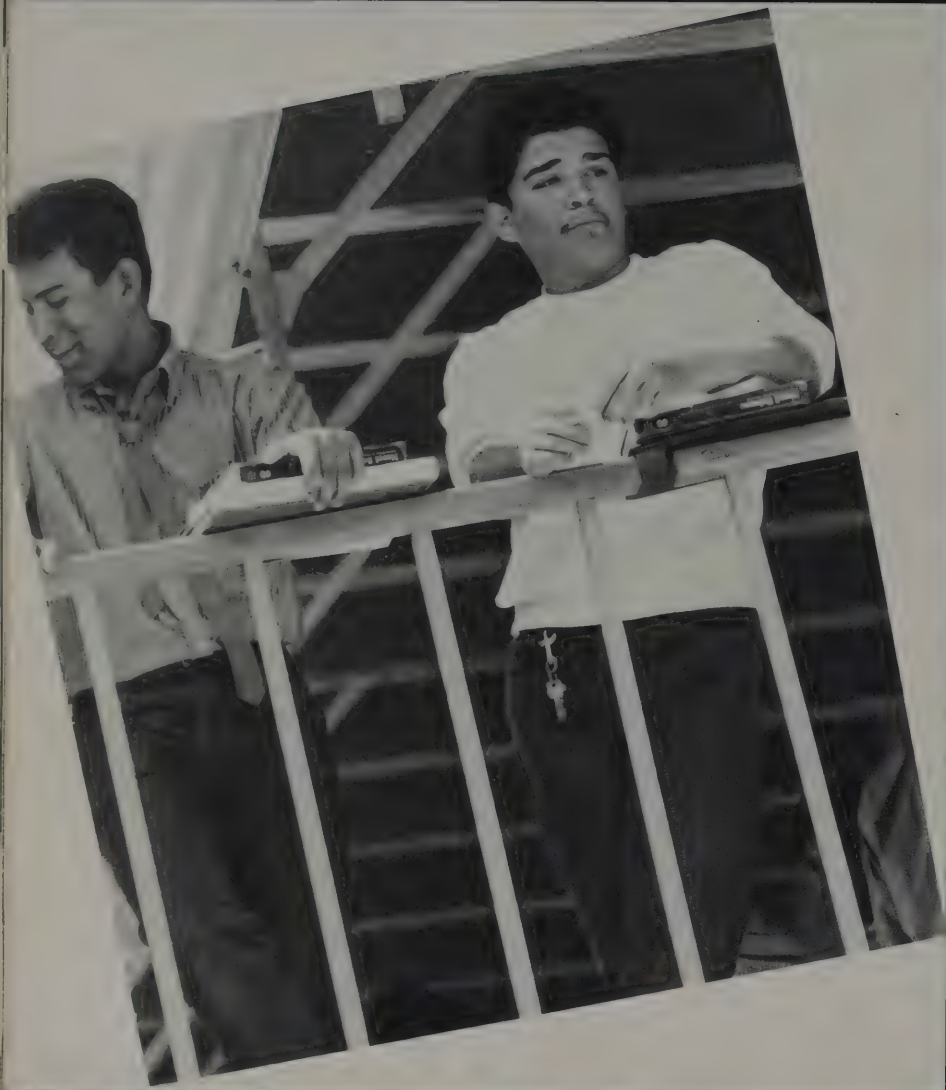

The game for the title of Division I state champions took place in Oakland on March 22, 1986. The Pointers were up against the Grant Pacers from Sacramento. "They were tough and quick, but we had better players," commented Lois Guillory. With superb players and the excellent coaching of Lee Trepanier Point Loma had a definite edge and were victorious over Grant with a score of 56-50.

"Winning this year meant a lot more because the southern section competed and we finally got some of the recognition we deserved," stated player of the year Terri Mann.

The Pointers' record for the season was 31-1 and in the three years they have won the state title their record has added up to be 88-1. The girls are ranked number one in the state of California and approximately number six in the nation. Point Loma is very proud of our Lady Pointers!

We Are Proud of You!

In Memory of Diane Helsper

As Diane shared her love and life with all of us, we share these lines with you.
They express what she would say to us, in the form she loved so true.

Charlie, Donna, and Debbie Helsper

Remember me with happiness
As I remember you.
My life was filled with love and laughter,
Don't grieve that it is through.

Fade all your tears into smiles,
One for each of my traveled miles.
For friends I've met from sea to sea,
Are all precious memories to me.

You may have known just a little girl
Full of energy, mischief, and joy.
I feel all your love for me
Tucked into my heart for eternity.

In my brief time, I traveled far
Learning and loving under the stars,
More life than most in so few years,
I begin this new life without any fears.

Tears mean nothing to me now,
As your life continues on.
Although you cannot see me,
I'll be there when times are fun.

My life was happy, as I am now
And that is what I wish for you.
Until the day we meet again,
Know that I am loving you ...

For Diane ...

She was a girl who touched the lives and hearts of many people. Her personality always kept people going when they were down and depressed, and her laugh and smile would always help to cheer them up. I would want everyone who knew Diane to remember her the way she was: always full of life, living life as though it had just begun and always ready to try new things. She always wanted to meet new people and try to help others when they needed it. Diane left me feeling not only that I'd lost a girlfriend, but a best friend, someone who I could talk to, care for, trust, and most of all, love. Diane will be in the hearts of everyone who knew her, and all who remember the laugh, the smile, and for the most part, the good person she always was.

We will all miss you Diane and we will always love you dearly. May you forever stay in our thoughts.

Jack E. Crivello

Leslie Ann Hogan touched many lives during her eighteen years and 3 day life. She was a Senior at Point Loma High School this year. Leslie was involved in a motorcycle accident on November 16 and was immediately rushed to the UCSD Medical Center, where she went into a coma. Later she pulled out of it and was making fabulous recovery, then died unexpectedly. Leslie passed away on February third, 1986, 3 days after her eighteenth birthday. Leslie loved to sunbathe and go jet and water skiing on the Colorado River. She also loved to spend time with best friends, Tracey Cameron and Marci Dominguez.

"Leslie's courage, bravery and love she gave makes it difficult to understand why God picks the most beautiful flowers. She was a fighter for life, and had come so far. Losing a child is the Ultimate Loss. Still . . . She Is My Miracle. She is a very treasured part of our memory.

Some people come into our lives and quickly go.
Some stay a while and leave footprints in our hearts and we are never the same again."

Special Thanks — Busco Nester Studios: John, Jan, Brent and Mr. Nestor, Bruce Smith and Phyllis Kempf of Herff Jones, Mrs. Nielson in the financial office, Reggie Morin for her pictures and Jeanne Smith and Audrey Ardale for their artwork.

In the past few years many things have changed at Point Loma, but the yearbook has not been one of them. This year I took the opportunity to bring the annual up to date with the attitudes and trends at Point Loma High.

In order to do this I tried to create a book that was both fun and exciting for the people it was meant for. I hope this year's book will not only appeal to the students, but also to all who come in contact with it.

Always treasure your yearbook, for within its pages hold the only thing we leave high school with — memories. May it always bring you joy, not only now, but 30 years from today.

I would like to add a special thanks to Mr. DeGraw, Ms. Ojeda, my friends, and especially my parents for all their support and understanding.

I wish to all a Passport To Happiness in the years ahead of them.
